The Novels Big Reads was created for those that are not afraid of 500-page volumes! In this course, we read longer literary masterpieces that require some extra time. So we take it slowly and remain with the same book for two months, rather than one. The course is taught by Ana and it happens twice a month on Wednesdays. If you miss one of the classes, you may watch the recording or come to the Saturday group (10am - 12pm).

This semester, we will read the unanimously loved Jane Austen! We start with her outstanding early work Sense and Sensibility, then move to the undisputed masterpiece Pride and Prejudice, and end with the incredible artistic maturity of Persuasion. The Novels Big Reads course costs R$ 150 a month and is perfect if you want to read three of the most celebrated authors of English literature!

All Our Readings

Our students are welcome to move between courses as they please – provided that they have the same frequency and price. For example, it is possible for someone to follow the Novels Advanced course for two months (The Great Gatsby and The Gambler), then move to the Novels Big Reads for another two months (Pride and Prejudice), and finish the last one at the Novels Intermediate course (Ethan Frome). Similarly, if he or she wishes, a student from the Short Stories course is free to change to the Read in Class for some time – and vice-versa. The flexibility is intended to help our students follow their personal interests and manage the amount of time they have available to read.
